David has it, but will re-send. Aaron, cc'd, received primarily typographical edits from Jack at around 5pm. The revised version will be ready tomorrow morning for transmittal to David. David made clear that he didn't want to see any typographical errors in the materials sent to him.

These are all good to go from my end. Except with one change to the proclamation (you can accept this change or not). Who will submit to David to get his final review? Need to be sent to WH. Should I send to Exec Sec?
